Advertising Policy

Advertising will be accepted in the newsletter subject to the following guidelines:

- Advertisements will be accepted for products or services thought to be of interest to Pennsylvania cardiologists and will not be accepted for products or services thought to be in direct conflict with PaACC Executive Council endorsed or sponsored programs or activities.
- Advertising which simulates reading matter will be plainly marked "advertisement" in a typeline above or below the insertion, in accordance with postal regulations.
- Advertisements will be run on a first-come, first-served basis as space permits.
- Payment must be submitted with advertisement. Any outstanding payments must be brought up-to-date before any new advertising will be inserted.
- Initial review of proposed advertising or classified ads will be made by the newsletter editor and/or the chapter administrator.
- Questions or problems regarding proposed advertising should be directed to the newsletter editor and/or the chapter administrator. Problems which cannot be resolved by the editor or the chapter administrator will be referred to the PaACC Executive Council whose decision will be final.
- The Pennsylvania Chapter, American College of Cardiology is only responsible for providing advertising space, and is not liable for the content of advertisements appearing in the Heart of the Matter.
- The Pennsylvania Chapter, American College of Cardiology reserves the right to determine the placement of all advertisements, except Special Position Ads.
- A signed contract and full payment must be submitted with each application prior to publication.
- An advertiser may change the copy of the ad in any issue. The ad will be repeated as in the previous issue if the publisher has not received new copy by issue deadline specified. All advertising changes require the submission of new artwork.
